

Margaret Boyd Bio

I am the Education Guide at Top Hill Low Reserve, having worked in both Secondary and Primary school settings focusing on learning in the outdoor environment. Prior to taking on this post, I completed a Research Project at Hull University in Outdoor Learning. My main roles now are delivering our education programme on the reserve and managing visiting college groups who volunteer to help out with practical conservation.